Curtis Parkinson
solicitors

Based in Nottingham, Curtis Parkinson is ideally situated to look after all your business' legal requirements from commercial property and conveyancing through to employment law issues and beyond.

When it comes to business, we're most definitely on your side. Our team has many years of experience in commercial law and we have specialists in all areas including debt collection and property repossession.

Commercial Property

Curtis Parkinson's efficient and experienced team can help with expert advice for small and medium sized enterprises in terms of acquiring and selling commercial property and leases, both new and assignments, which will protect your interests. We will work with you to ensure the process is clear and concise as well as offering practical advice and solutions.

The advice offered allowed us to make decisions without feeling pressured, and complete the process at our own pace.

Mr. Tipping

Property: Mortgage & Rent Repossession

Having worked with some of the UK's leading banks and building societies, Curtis Parkinson offers a complete property repossession service. We are able to manage the entire repossession process from beginning to end and on the way solving any potential title issues before they become a problem at the point of sale. We can also advise upon any issues that affect the value of the property and the involvement of previous professionals.

Commercial Debt Collection

Curtis Parkinson has helped organisations across the country to recover what is due to them. We recover monies in a quick, efficient and cost effective manner.

Commercial Employment Advice

We understand that managing a business that employs staff isn't straightforward. Utilise our free company 'Health Check' to ensure all your employment contracts are compliant and that your business is operating within the law.

Feel free to Contact us now on any aspect of business and commercial law that you are unsure about or that you feel you may have an issue with. We'll be happy to help.

It has been very useful to have a local solicitor. Communication is good and you do what you say you'll do.

J. Groves

You have been so helpful and explained everything so clearly.
