Parkinson
solicitors

We specialise in Equine Law in the Nottingham and Nottinghamshire area.

We are a nation of animal lovers and horses, in particular, bring joy to many peoples' lives.

However, as much as we adore them, they also have the potential to cause accidents and damage (albeit unwittingly!)

All equestrians, if they last long enough, learn that riding in whatever form, is a lifelong sport and art; an endeavour that is both familiar and new every time you take the horse out of his stable or field.

Accidents & Negligence

Here at Curtis Parkinson, we pride ourselves on specialising in equine accidents, professional negligence, disputes over ownership and purchase and sale of horses. We're here for you if you or your horse has been involved in an accident, if a vet or valuer has got it badly wrong or something has gone wrong when buying or selling a horse.

Agreements & Dispute Resolution

We also use our experience to offer legal advice when it comes to loan agreements, sharing a horse or selling a horse or pony. If you find yourself in dispute over a horse purchase (whether you are defending a sale or bringing a claim against the seller), Curtis Parkinson's specialist team can help bring the situation to a suitable conclusion.

How we can help:

We offer a free initial consultation, so whatever the issue is with your equine companion, call us to discuss.
