Accidents happen...

... Well yes, they do, but if you're the innocent victim of an accident that was due to someone else's negligence, then the team at Curtis Parkinson are here to help.

We should be your first call as we believe in getting you the compensation you deserve. The consequences of an injury and the nature of your claim vary from person to person but regardless we promise to support you every step of the way.

We offer conditional fee agreements (CFA) sometimes mistakenly known as 'No Win No Fee'. Having said that our conditional fee agreements allow you to make a genuine personal injury claim with the security and peace of mind that there is no financial risk to you.

If you win your case, your opponent will pay the majority of your legal costs however due to a change in the law there are some things they do not have to pay for, but we explain this in full. In the event that your case isn't successful, you can be assured that there is no financial risk and you won't have to pay anything.

How we can help

Although money is no substitute for your health and wellbeing, our experienced team will guide you through the accident compensation claim, explaining how a successful claim will work and what sort of compensation you can reasonably expect to receive. For more information and a free discussion on how to progress, call us today.

We provide jargon free advice and support, to victims meaning there is no financial risk.

Contact us today you have nothing to lose.

Personal Injury Trusts

If your claim is successful or you had a successful claim with another solicitor and you are awarded a sum of money for your injury, this may affect any means tested benefits you receive now or in the future. By placing this money in a Personal Injury Trust, you can protect your damages and ensure you continue to receive your state benefits without having to take your damages into account, saving thousands of pounds per year.
